Academic Scholarships

Students who graduate as valedictorian or salutatorian from their high school may apply for this scholarship. Students can also qualify for this scholarship with their ACT or SAT test scores.

Valedictorian/Salutatorian: In order for a student to qualify for the valedictorian or salutatorian portion of this scholarship, there must be at least five students in their graduating class. If applying for valedictorian or salutatorian, this scholarship will not be awarded until the student's school has sent a letter stating their class rank and class size. The student will need to make this request to their school.

ACT: Students who take the ACT after April 2025 must receive a composite score of 25 or higher and a score of 24 or higher on the science portion within a single test. If the ACT was taken before April 2025, a composite score of 25 will qualify for this scholarship. ACT Superscore cannot be used to qualify for this scholarship. An official copy of the ACT must be sent directly to the college. (ACT school code: 0281)

SAT: Students must receive a 1210 or higher. An official copy of the SAT must be sent directly to the college. (SAT school code: 3695)

If the scholarship is awarded, the student will receive one semester's tuition free. This scholarship cannot be combined with any other scholarship and is only available during a student's first semester of enrollment at GSBC. This scholarship is only available to undergraduate students who have completed high school within the past two years.
